

YORK UNIVERSITY'S LILLIAN WRIGHT MATERNAL-CHILD INSTITUTE: METHODOLOGICAL APPROACHES

Organized by Echo's Chair in Women's Mental Health Research in partnership with the Faculty of Health

Date: Friday, September 23rd, 2011

Time: 9:00am to 4:30pm

Location: York University (Keele Campus)
Room 280N York Lanes

Please register online

<http://www.yorku.ca/nkhanlou/lillian-wright-maternal-child-institutue.html>

Please register early as space is limited for this free event.

Registration closes August 31, 2011. Lunch will be provided.

Speakers:

Dr. Nasim Haque (Wellesley Institute)

Photovoice as an arts based research approach.

Professor Christine Kurtz Landy (York University)

Mixed methods designs in maternal child health.

Professor Olive Wahoush (McMaster University)

Challenges of conducting research with refugee families.

Professor Beryl Pilkington (York University)

Issues in international research collaboration in maternal child health.

Christine Tassopoulos (Ontario Health Study)

Former Lillian Wright Scholarship recipient and currently Junior Science Officer.

Learn more about the Lillian Wright Student Scholars:
www.yorku.ca/nkhanlou/lillian-wright-student-scholars.html

Faculty of Health

