

Improving Privacy for Young Adults with Developmental Disabilities through Research and Innovative Knowledge Translation: An Interactive Workshop

*A project funded by the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada

Kaneff Tower 519, York University

March 2, 2018

Agenda

Time	Item	Speaker
9:30- 10:00	Registration & Light breakfast (coffee/ juice & muffins)	All participants
FIRST PART Knowledge Sharing
10:00- 10:20	Welcome	Nazilla Khanlou, Project Leader, and Chris Beesley, Community Partner
10:20-10:30	Greetings from the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada	François Cadieux, Senior Strategic Research Analyst
10:30-11:00	Keynote Presentation: Issues of Privacy Protection for Young Adults with Developmental Disabilities in Canada	Michael Bach, Managing Director
11:00- 11:20	Overview of PIPEDA Improving Privacy Rights - A legal perspective	Katie Degendorfer, Project Team Member
11:20- 12:00	Summary of Project Outcomes	Anne Mantini, Project Co-Leader
12:00- 12:30	Light lunch & Networking	All participants
SECOND PART Participatory, Input on Tool-Kits from Stakeholders
12:30- 1:00	Presentation of group activities to discuss 2 tool-kits	Anne Mantini, Project Co-Leader
1:00- 2:00	Break up to small groups to discuss 2 tool-kits	All participants
2:00- 2:10	Workshop Evaluation	All participants
2:10- 3:00	Large group discussion/ input to 2 tool-kits	All participants
3:00- 3:30	Wrap-Up	All participants