

CALL FOR POSTERS

5th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Institute: Gender-Based Violence and Trauma- Informed Approaches

We invite you to submit your poster to the upcoming 5th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Institute that will take place on Friday, 1st November 2019 at York University.

This one-day event is organized by the Women's Health Research Chair in Mental Health and the Lillian Meighen Wright Scholars Program Academic Lead, Dr. Nazilla Khanlou, and the Advisory Committee of this year's Learning Institute.

We are now accepting abstracts for posters to be displayed, from community organizations, institutions, advocates, students, researchers, and any other interested member of the community. If you have a relevant research poster to display (a new poster created for this day or a poster you have presented elsewhere) then send us your abstract for the poster by the due date following the guidelines below. Please note that the overall focus of the abstract and poster should be related to one of the following themes:

- 1) Maternal-Child Health, and/or
- 2) Gender-Based Violence and Trauma-Informed Approaches (in research/ practice/ policy)

We welcome abstracts from a wide array of fields, approaches and disciplines. The presenters of selected abstracts will be notified and their abstract will be included in the 5th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Institute's program booklet.

Abstract Submission guidelines: Abstracts should not exceed 300 words in length. Please format your abstract for the poster using the headings provided and email your abstract to owhchair@yorku.ca by September 23, 2019. In the subject line of your email, please mention "5th LMW Institute: Poster"
