CALL FOR POSTER ABSTRACTS

7th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Academy

Impacts of Natural Disasters on Maternal-Child Health

Virtual Event: 15 & 17 July 2024
Faculty of Health, York University

- We invite poster abstracts for the 7th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Academy that will be held virtually on Monday July 15 and Wednesday July 17, 2024.

- This two-day event is organized by the Women's Health Research Chair in Mental Health and the Lillian Meighen Wright Scholars Program Academic Lead, Dr. Nazilla Khanlou, and the Student Co-chairs of the Program, Meaghan Hall and Lojain Hamwi.

- We welcome submissions from students, educators, researchers, service providers, policymakers, and community members. Please ensure that the abstract for the poster follows the guidelines provided further below.

- Presenters of accepted abstracts will be notified, and their abstract will be included in the 7th Lillian Meighen Wright Maternal-Child Health Learning Academy's program booklet.

- Poster presenters will present their poster as a short lightning presentation. They will be asked to submit a pre-recorded video version of their poster to be presented during the event.

- Poster presenters will be invited to submit a fuller version of their work in a manuscript format to a special issue of the International Network on Youth Integration INYI Journal (https://inyi.journals.yorku.ca/).

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Theme: We are seeking submissions on the impacts of natural disasters (e.g., earthquakes, floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, tsunamis) on maternal-child health, across multiple domains (physical health and mental health, economic, environmental, political). We invite descriptive, empirical, analytical, or reflective submissions on:

i)   how these disasters affect mothers, children, and/ or their communities;
ii) what supports are helpful; and
iii) how populations adjust following these disasters.

Abstracts should not exceed 300 words in length. Please format your abstract using the headings provided below and email your abstract, as a word file, to owhchair@yorku.ca by 15 March 2024. In the subject line of your email, please write "7th LMW Academy: Poster Abstract."
